McIlHENNY--KING REUNION

LARGE GATHERING AT GREAT CONOWAGO PRESB. CHURCH.

A Permanent Organization Effected and Plans Laid for Reunion Next Year.

The gathering of the descendants of Robert McIlhenney and Victor King on last Saturday proved to be a very unique and delightful occasion. The event was the inspiration of Wm. A. McIlhenney of this place. With the assistance of Miss Annie H. Majors of town, invitations were sent out to every known descendant of the two families. The day was a perfect one and 161 descendants gathered at the old kirk of their fathers, the Greater Conowago Presbyterian Church near Hunterstown. They came not only from the county, but from all parts of the country in autos and conveyances. The call had the notes of the bagpipe that rallied them to the gathering of the clans.

This family reunion represented two of the oldest families in the Tyrone-Straban section of the county. In 1735 three brothers, Victor, James and William King are the first settlers on one side of the Great Conowago Creek and in 1745 Robert McIlhenney is the first settler on the opposite bank of the creek. These sturdy pioneers had to fight the Indians and Victor King is a lieutenant in a company raised in this section by Thomas Hamilton. When the war of the Revolution comes these original settlers furnished sons for the cause of freedom, Robert McIlhenney and Hugh King becoming lieutenants of companies with other brothers in the ranks. The ties of country, of a common defense are further cemented by ties of blood, Lt. Robert McIlhenney marrying Martha King and his brother Wm. McIlhenney marrying Agnes King, daughters of Victor King and their sister Ann McIlhenney marrying William King, son of James King. Descendants of all three and other branches were present.

The lecture room of the church was used for a dining hall and the long tables were more than twice filled before the feasting was at an end. A delicious dinner was served, one of those kind with everything to be thought of to put everyone in the best of humor with the world and specially his or her kinsfolk.

After dinner the gathering was photographed in front of the church. All were invited into the church to help to form a permanent organization of the McIlhenney-King descendants. Hon. Samuel Knox of Germantown called the meeting to order and Rev. Geo. F. Baker, pastor of the church, invoked the divine blessing on the gathering. Mr. Knox then stated that he was prepared to entertain a motion for a permanent president and believed the honor should be given to the one who had made possible the delightful gathering, and Wm. A. McIlhenney of this place, was unanimously chosen president.

Mr. McIlhenney, in taking the chair, made a short speech expressive of his thanks. The other officers chosen were Miss Annie H. Majors, secretary, and Hugh McIlhenney treasurer. The president cleverly suggested that the feelings of some present might be hurt if they were not asked to help defray the expenses and a collection was taken up and literally responded to.

An executive committee of five was authorized and named, R. K. Majors of Straban, Wm. B. McIlhenney of Gettysburg, James McIlhenney of Knoxlyn, Miss Ann McIlhenney and James F. Bell.

A committee on history was next authorized and named, Victor King McIlhenney of New York City, Wm. A. McIlhenney of Harrisburg, S. M. Knox of Germantown, Miss Fannie Bell of Hunterstown and Prof. Franklin Menges of York.

Prof. Menges addressed the gathering giving data of the first land grant to Robert McIlhenney and other matters of family history. Wm. A. McIlhenney of Harrisburg gave history of his branch of the family, the connecting link with the Adams county family being now unknown. Victor King McIlhenney of near Pittsburg was present and an interesting statement he had prepared was read by Miss Annie H. Majors. Further remarks were made by Victor King McIlhenney of New York City, Wm. Arch. McClean and Prof. Menges.

Two antiques attracted much attention, an old piece of furniture of Violet King, loaned by the Bell family, and the old collection box of the kirk, a square affair marked 1778.

Enthusiastic unanimity was given to the proposition to making the gathering an annual affair.

Those present from a distance were Miss Rebecca McIlhenney of Cleveland, O., George A. Shower and daughter, Miss Cecelia, of Manchester, Md., Stewart McJohnson of Harrisburg, Mr. and Mrs. Victor King McIlhenney, Jr., of New York City, Victor King McIlhenney, Sr., of Munhall, Pa., and his daughter, Miss Mary S., of Pittsburg, Mr. and Mrs. S. Russell Bayly of Baltimore, Md., Mr. and Mrs. James S. Gordon of Waynesboro, Mrs. Martha W. Craighead and son James B., of Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Albert McIlhenney of Harrisburg, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McIlhenney of Penbrook, Pa., Mrs. Jennie J. Wilson and Mrs. Amelia E. Snively of Penbrook, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lingie of Linglestown, Pa., H. L. Cobean of Wellington, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Sefton and Mr. and Mrs. S. F.

Dunkle of Harrisburg, Mr. and Mrs. John K. McIlhenney and daughter of Steelton, Prof. and Mrs. Frank Menges and their children of York, Mrs. G. A. Chalfant of Pittsburg, Mrs. Allen Kirkpatrick of Braddock, Mrs. Jane M. R. Plank of Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Knox and daughter of Germantown, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Knox and daughter of Wilmington.

In addition to various branches of the McIlhenney and King families there were present from this county representatives of many other families related by blood and marriage, the Bell, Majors, Horner, Knox, Scott, McGaughey, Cobean, Boyer, Taughnbaugh, Dickson, Weaver, Gladhill, Setton, Kerr, Lott, Hare, and Fidler.

Reunion of 87th Pa. Vol. Regt.

The 87th Pennsylvania Volunteer Regiment had a remarkable reunion in York on last Friday. As far as known there are 110 members of the regiment living and of this number 99 registered and nine absent ones were heard from by letter. One of those attending came from as far west as Missouri.

The 87th was largely recruited in York county, Co. F coming from Adams county. Those present at the reunion from Co. F were Capt. Wm. T. Ziegler, Capt. Calvin Gilbert, John H. Sheads, C. W. Sheads, Perry J. Tawney of Gettysburg, Daniel F. Reigle of near town, Charles E. Shelly of Dayton, Ohio, and James Adair of New York City. Other veterans of the county present were S. R. Andrews of this place of Co. A, John Crone of Orrtanna of Co. E, and Wm. G. Small of New Oxford of Co. G. The veterans were entertained at the country home of Capt. W. H. Lanus.

Colonel John W. Schall of Norris-town, commander of the regiment, was re-elected president. The other officers elected were as follows: Vice President, Lieutenant Colonel James A. Stahl, Manchester township, and Capt. James Adair, New York City; Secretary, John C. Hoffman, Co. G; treasurer, Lieutenant Charles H. Stallman, Co. C; executive committee, Captain John Fahs, Co. A, Lieutenant Alex. Strickler, Co. D, Alexander Klinedinst, Co. D, Captain W. H. Lanus, Co. I, Michael Smyser, commissary sergeant.

Foot Ball Season Begins

The Gettysburg college football team met a very creditable defeat on last Saturday, at hands of the team of the University of Pennsylvania on Franklin field, Philadelphia. The home team had less than the usual chance at practice, it being the first game away from home, as well as the first game with any team. The good material of the home team is shown by the small score of 20 to 0 made against them. 17 points of the game was made in the first half, while the Gettysburg team was new to the situation, and consisted three touch downs by Penn., with goal kicked twice. When the Gettysburg team got itself in naud for hard fighting in the second half, they prevented any scoring except the three points made by a field goal. The line-up for Gettysburg was Snyder left end; Chamberlain, left tackle; Keller, left guard; Alderling, centre; Stauffer, right guard; Miller, right tackle; Huenger, right end; Phillips, quarter back; Emphield, left half-back; Smith, right half-back; and Bowser, full-back.

The Gettysburg town team played the strong Littlestown team on Saturday afternoon, the score being 0-0.

Sales of Real Estate.

Allen Kane, son of County Commissioner J. Andrew Kane, bought the farm of — acres of the estate of A. J. Lochbaum in Highland township at the sale held by the administrator, A. M. Lochbaum, for $2837.50.

The property of the late N. F. Hersh of York Springs, was sold to Edward Keefer for $1050, the tract of land of 12 acres near the Sulphur Springs was sold to Abram Bosserman at $70.25 per acre and the mountain wood lot to Amos F. Bushey, Jr., for $75.

Chas. S. Duncan, attorney for Mrs. Sadie L. Dellone, has sold the White Hall Hotel property, part of the estate of Jere Johns, deceased, to E. P. Sachs of Gettysburg, for $800. Mr. Biddle, the tenant, has had public sale of his personal property and removed to Brooklyn.

The 119 acre farm of the late J. J. Weigle, containing 1000 young apple trees, was bought by H. M. Weigle of Harrisburg at $60 per acre.

Edward Lawver has sold his property in Butler township, containing 30 acres, being located at the foot of what is known as Pine Hill, upon which the Biglerville reservoir is situated, to Edward Sachs for $4000.

Howard Rahn of York county, has purchased property of Adolphus Rittase in Conowago township of 17 acres for $2100.

A number of sales of real estate have recently taken place in Biglerville. S. G. Bigham has purchased of G. W. Koser the store property he occupies, for $4000. Samuel Hoffman has sold his property to Wayright Rice for $4100. E. L. Fohl has sold his property adjoining the bank, to Samuel Hoffman for $2500. Hon. James C. Cole has bought eight building lots of Amos Silik and will erect several new houses at once. The Land Co. has sold lots to Joseph Bream and Samuel Orner, and latter will erect dwelling at once. John Spangler has sold property to A. A. Myers of Reading township.

Benj. P. Ogle has bought the D. Milton Feeser property in Littlestown for $2200.

Wm. A. McIlhenney has bought from S. A. Hammond of Denver, Colo., the house on Lincoln street, now occupied by Mr. McIlhenney and family.

Chas. S. Duncan and Mrs. Emma Hafer, executors of the W. W. Hafer estate, sold at public sale, the frame dwelling and store in Abbottstown to N. M. Berkheimer, the present occupant, for $1,926. Four tracts of woodland were also sold—5 acres to Chas. Wolf at $66 per acre; 5 acres to John Danner at $56 per acre; 5 acres to F. K. Hafer at $60 per acre, and 5 acres to Mr. Sneeringer at $54 per acre. The woodland is located in Berwick township, about 1 1/2 miles southeast of Abbottstown.

The farm which belonged to Jacob Mowery, deceased, has been sold to Edward Lawver for the sum of $7000. Mr. Lawver contemplates turning it into a dairy farm. The farm is situated in Butler township, one-half mile north of Biglerville.

Jonas G. Trimmer, of Carlisle, has sold his small farm, near Seven Hundred school house, Hamilton township, at present tenanted by John L. Staub, to George D. Gitt, of Hanover, on private terms.

Court House Pavement Started

Charles E. Lady on Monday began the work of putting down a cement pavement at the Court House. The first work was at the heavy granite steps in front. They had gotten out of position and had to be raised and straightened and the two large heavy side pieces were placed on cement foundations. The pavement on Middle Street and portion on Baltimore Street constantly in use have been out of repairs and practically worn out for years, being full of holes and in wet weather a string of puddles. The town authorities notified the County Commissioners that a new pavement was needed and the Commissioners believing it to be their duty to comply with all legal requirements ordered the work to be done.

Burglars Enter Cashtown Post-Office

The Cashtown post-office and D. A. Mickley store were broken into early last Friday morning. Entrance was gained by boring a large number of holes through the lower part of the door with an auger, and separating door from its lower hinges. The burglars secured less than $3, two pairs of shoes and a few other articles. It was evident that they were after money and it is believed the work was not that of professionals as no attempt was apparent on the large safe which contained money and stamps.

Sedgwick Equestrian Statue.

The Commission appointed by the Governor of Connecticut to erect an equestrian Statue to Major General John Sedgwick of the 6th Corps on the battlefield of Gettysburg at a cost of $25,000 visited Gettysburg on last Thursday. Five members of Commission, accompanied by the National Park Commissioner and Prof. John A. Himes, an honorary member of the Sixth Corps Society Army of the Potomac and Secretary of the Committee through whose efforts the appropriation bill passed went over the battlefield and the site found most available for the Statue was on Sykes avenue at Round Top near the Sykes and Sedgwick headquarters.

MANY OCTOBER VISITORS

STATE CONVENTION OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Loyal Legion Will Spend Two Days on the Field—Many Other Visitors Coming.

The prospects are bright that October will bring a very large number of visitors to Gettysburg. There will be a number of touring parties and autos by the hundreds can be looked for.

On Saturday, October 9, the annual Topton excursion will occur and it is expected that its proportions will be as large as on any previous year, running into thousands.

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 12, 13, and 14, the Twenty Third Annual Convention of the County Commissioners will be held at Gettysburg. This convention will bring several hundred guests and the following program for the occasion has been arranged:

The Executive Committee will meet Tuesday, Oct. 12, at 1 o'clock, p. m., in the Court House.

The convention will be called promptly at 2 o'clock, p. m., convening in Court House, Gettysburg, Pa. After the invocation an address of welcome will be made by Hon. J. A. Holtzworth, Burgess of Gettysburg, and response by Frank H. Fay, Esq., Solicitor Blair county. The report of the Executive Committee will follow and election of officers.

Question—What legislation will prevent the nuisance as it now exists of Train Riders or Transient Tramps as they are now, burdening many of the counties of this State by their arrest and keep, will be opened by Frank H. Fay, Esq.

Wednesday morning at 9.30 o'clock, the convention will be called to order. Question—Would the month of March or April be more satisfactory for making assessment of all property than the time as fixed by law, viz: The first Monday of September to begin work. Opened by H. C. Brennenman, Esq., Solicitor, York county.

Question—Should the county pay the Sheriff's fees for the commitment and discharge of prisoners committed for the violation of offenses punishable by summary conviction. Opened by M. F. Thompson, Esq., Solicitor Cumberland county.

Discussion—A general and uniform law under the direction of the respective County Commissioners for the proper care of the poor of this Commonwealth would be desirable and more effective than the present. Opened by J. L. Williams, Esq., Solicitor Adams Co.

Wednesday afternoon, convention called to order at 2 p. m., and after roll call the subject, The best and most economical bridge to build by the counties, opened by W. Howard Harpster, Blair county. Remarks by others.

Report on construction of State highways by Hon. Jos. W. Hunter, Harrisburg, Pa., State Highway Commissioner. It will be followed by a general discussion of road and bridge building.

Thursday morning, convention called to order at 9.30. Report of committee will be heard. Unfinished and miscellaneous business will receive attention, and place for next meeting will be decided.

S. Miley Miller, Clerk to the County Commissioners, has been in communication with parties from many parts of the State, furnishing information about railroads, etc.

On Oct. 21-22 the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, Commandery of the State of Pennsylvania, will make a visit here. The purpose of the two days' trip is to entertain the companions of the Commandery-in-Chief and a committee of thirty-one members have charge of the arrangements. Col. John P. Nicholson, being a member of the committee. This gathering will bring to Gettysburg a number of distinguished military men of the country.

Educational Meeting.

The first Educational Meeting of the Teachers' Rally of Cumberland township was held Friday evening, September 24th, at Fairplay school. H. Bream, teacher.

A very interesting and instructive program was presented. The meeting was called to order by the President. Before transacting the business of the meeting all participated in singing America. Owing to the absence of the Secretary Mary Rudisill was elected pro tem. Then followed the reading and accepting of the constitution of the Rally. The president then read a letter sent to the Rally by the county Superintendent, Prof. Roth.

After the business was transacted Mr. Bream welcomed the teachers and patrons to the meeting. He stated that the object of the meeting held by the Teachers' Rally was to bring the patrons in closer relation with the school and to promote the educational interest of the teachers. The regular order of the program was then followed which consisted of singing, three topics that were discussed by the teachers and recitations by the pupils of the school.

The first topic discussed, "What do you understand by being thorough?" was ably discussed by Miss Mary Bream and Miss Edith Micklely. The discussion was opened by Miss Bream saying, "The school is a place of living agency, the teacher should have a thorough knowledge of the subjects she is teaching, and a teacher should never use notes in class." The second speaker, Miss Micklely, said: "The three principles necessary for the advancement of the education of a child, unity, thoroughness and spirit of inquiry. A person may be thorough in one place and not in another. The teacher may also be thorough in one subject and not in another, but we may become more thorough by knowing all the subjects." The subject being generally discussed. Professor H. M. Roth said he sometimes wished everything could be learned as thoroughly as the multiplication tables, but much which is taught to the child is not remembered and sometimes it is good that it is not, as for instance, if a child gives the following definition for the predicate of a sentence: "The predicate of a sentence is that of which something is said." He said a teacher should be able to go before some of the classes without text books. But she should always know what is in the lesson and the important parts that she wants to emphasize. The teacher should always have some aim in view when teaching a class. She should put all the interest in the lesson. Get the child interested to ask questions during the recitation.

The second topic, "My Ideal Country School," was discussed by John Black and Miss Laura Raffensperger. The former saying his Ideal Country School was to have a school building in the centre of the township and then have the schools graded. But as we do not have this we should try to make our district schools ideal. To have an ideal country school the teacher should be backed by the Board of Directors and patrons who are interested in school work. The teacher should have educational qualities and discipline. Parents do wrong by sending their children to the district school under six years of age. He urged that children remain in the district school until they are qualified to take the examination for a diploma issued by the County Superintendent.

Miss Raffensperger was not present but her essay was read by Mr. Appier. She said that there are many ideals of country schools. The needs of our schools is closer supervision. The directors should visit the schools once a month. She emphasized that care should be taken in selecting grounds for school buildings.

The subject opened for discussion. Mr. Stultz gave some very good points on the Ideal School, saying that the word ideal had a very broad meaning, and that each teacher should try to find what an Ideal school is, and follow that. Speaking of thoroughness he said. Many of the failures are caused by the lack of thoroughness.

The last topic discussed was "Primary Reading," Mary Rudisill opened discussion saying much of the educational development of a child depends on the way in which it is started in reading. A child should be taught to read well when young. Her method for teaching primary reading was the word method.

Miss Mable Bollinger said the subject, Primary Reading, is being discussed by the educational men of today. The child should not be allowed to read in any manner, but so that its reading will be expressive.

Then Prof. H. M. Roth gave a short talk, stating the value of the word method to that of the A B C method. A child can be taught a hundred words in less time than it can be taught the A B C's, because when a child is taught a word it means something to it, but a letter means nothing. It is better to have the object in sight when the word is taught as it will make an impression on the mind of the child, and will remember it better. Teachers should try to teach the child two new words a day, and then have a list of all the words taught on the blackboard, taking frequent reviews of them.

After singing good night the meeting adjourned. The next one to be held at Pitzer's school, October 15, Miss Micklely, teacher.

S. S. District Convention.

THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

OF THE BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG IS BEING TAKEN CARE OF.

Commission Appointed by Governor Stuart Organized last week.

The commission appointed by Gov. Stuart to take charge of a proper celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg in July 1913, took the first steps last week by meeting in Philadelphia and organizing. The meeting was at the Union League and after a luncheon, General Louis Wagner was elected chairman and Rev. John R. Boyle of Reading secretary. The members of the commission present beside the two named were Colonel R. Dale Benson of Philadelphia, Adjutant Wm. Penn Lloyd of Mechanicsburg, Colonel R. Bruce Ricketts of Wilkes-Barre, and Corporal Irvin K. Campbell of Pittsburg. The members not present were Sergeant Alexander McDowell of Sharon, Louis T. Brown of Pittsburg, and Major General John R. Brooke of Philadelphia.

The purpose of the appointment of the commission was discussed and that the co-operation of Congress and the States of the Union were desirable and should be sought. The officers of the commission were instructed to submit a first draft of a communication to be sent to Congress and the States asking their co-operation in the celebration.

Governor Stuart had been asked to meet with the commission and was unable to do so. In order to confer with the Governor the next meeting was fixed for October 25 at Harrisburg.

Later in the week after the organization the resignation of Major General John R. Brooke was made public. Before the next meeting of the commission Gov. Stuart will likely have named some one in his place.

WEDDINGS

REINDOLLAR—STEHL—Edward E. Reindollar, the well known business man of Taneytown, and Miss Ida Katherine Stehl were married on last Wednesday morning, at the home of the brides son, Allen Otto Stehl, Linden Terrace, near Towson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. A. Heilman, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church of Baltimore. After a wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Reindollar left on an automobile trip to Northern points. They will reside in Taneytown. The marriage was a surprise to many relatives and friends of the parties. Mr. Reindollar is well known in Gettysburg, being related to a number of our people.

The banns of marriage have been published in the church of the Immaculate Conception, between Felix V. Staub, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Staub, of near New Oxford, and Miss Elizabeth C. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Smith of McSherrystown. The ceremony will take place in St. Mary's church, McSherrystown, on the morning of October 5th.

A MARYLAND EDITOR VISITS

GETTYSBURG AND TELLS OF THE PLEASURE OF HIS TRIP

In his Paper, the Hampstead Enterprise—How Others See Us.

Last week we spent a few days at Gettysburg, on business, and passed several hours in the Adams County Court House with J. G. Slonaker, the popular and efficient county treasurer and others of the "unwashed and unlettered," for it must be remembered that Adams county is one of those strange settings, a Democratic county in Pennsylvania, and be it said to the credit of the officials, a clean county, too.

We also met some grand old Republicans of the old guard—men who were in the heat of the battle that was waged there some forty-six years ago. Among them was Marcus J. Hamilton, Mr. Hamilton is one of the kind who fought in the front ranks during the war and when the war was over, quit fighting and now takes pleasure in grasping the hand of the worthy foe who wore the gray.

They have a street car line at Gettysburg that makes the round of the great battlefield every hour and several times during our stay, we made the trip with Mr. Hamilton as our companion. He knows every foot of the vast area over which mighty armies struggled, advancing, retreating, taking a position and then abandoning it, each time leaving on the gory field many of America's bravest and best men.

Of course in a hurried trip like this we could get but little of the details of the battle nor even glance at the hundreds of monuments that stand like grim sentinels over the once bloody field. Many of the houses still stand as they did during that terrible slaughter when over 10,000 brave men gave up their lives and hundreds of thousands bore from the field the ghastly tokens of war. Those houses that were standing during the three days battle, bear the marks of shot and shell, and even here and there a panel of board fence shows the path of deadly missiles.

Far away to the west, hazily outlined against the horizon, the Blue Ridge still keeps its vigils, Big and Little Round Top, Culp's Hill and other eminences rise above the valleys and are decorated with many monuments. Plum Run still winds its way between the Round Top and Wheat field, but today it flows tranquilly through Death Valley glimmering like a thread of silver under the slanting September sun. Forty-six years ago it glowed crimson with the blood of the dying or wounded who sought its welcome waters to cleanse their wounds or to lie down and die upon its mossy banks, dreaming in death's delirium of raging battles or of the home that this day's work would make desolate.

Details are tedious. Volumes have been written about this great battle, virtually the turning point in the war, but all has not been written and never can be. As years pass by more facts develop, more monuments spring magic-like from the soil and a united nation walks hand in hand over the field where once its bravest and noblest sons met in battle array and fought as never mortals fought since first the flight of time began.

Surprise Party.

A very enjoyable surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Snyder of near Yoast's Store on Wednesday eve, Sept. 15, in honor of their daughter Helen's birthday.

The evening was spent in playing games, music, and social conversation. Mr. Harry Snyder and son Lloyd furnished the music with their violins which was much appreciated by all. At a reasonable hour all were invited to the dining table which was set upon the lawn and laden with all the delicacies of the season to which they all did ample justice. After which they all departed for their respective homes, wishing Miss Helen many more such happy occasions. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Sentz, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Deatrice, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bair, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Breighner, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Bereaw, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Sentz, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Collins, Mrs. Hanson Collins, Mrs. John Collins, Mrs. David Topper, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Collins, Misses Anna Collins, Rena Collins, Mary Collins, Elsie Smith, Louise Collins, Grace Hartlaub, Edna Arentz, Dora Rose, Ananda Arentz, Maude Hartlaub, Helen Snyder, Bessie Hartlaub, Bernice Collins, Nettie Collins, Lottie Smith, Ruth Hartlaub, Margie Snyder, Mildred Deatrice, Eva Snyder, Elizabeth Deatrice, Leola Deatrice, Elvie Snyder, Myrtle Sentz, Helen Collins, Pauline

WHEN HER BACK ACHES.

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Gettysburg women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pain, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Gettysburg woman's words:

Mrs. John Menchey, 46 Breckenridge St., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "I have always been nervous and in poor health and recently when an attack of kidney trouble came on, I was unable to work. I suffered from severe pains in my back and I also had chills. A friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a box at the People's Drug Store. They restored my health and I am now in a better condition than before in a long time. I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for this improvement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Explorer's Wooing.

Oh, come with me to the Arctic Seas, Where the blizzards and icebergs grow, And dally awhile with the polar breeze In the land of the Eskimo. We will fish for seal and the great white bears In their caves on the frozen shores; We will spread our nets in the frigid lairs, Of the walrus that snorts and roars.

When the rest of creation swoons with heat, All pleasant and chipper we'll be; 'T would be hard to find a summer retreat As cool as the Arctic Sea.

We will ramble along in some snowy glade With never a sultry sigh, Or lo! at ease in the grateful shade Of an iceberg four miles high.

So come with me to the Arctic Pole—To the land of the walrus and bear, Where the glaciers wave and the blizzards roll, And victuals are frequently rare, You are plump and fat—with such a mate

In my iceberg I could dwell In the pleasing hope I could baffle fate By eating you au naturel.

—Eugene Field.

SOME PERSONALS.

IRON SPRINGS, Sept. 23.—Lewis Carbaugh from Highfield, visited his son Elmer Carbaugh and family recently.

Mrs. Frank McIntire and child from Fountain Dale visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Madison Shindler one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Felix and son Lester from Gettysburg visited his brother Frank Felix and family over Sunday.

The first Teacher's meeting will be held at Fairfield Station in the public school house on Friday evening, Sept. 24th. There will be several subjects discussed by the teachers also a very elaborate program has been arranged by Miss Sharetts and her pupils.

MANY SUFFERERS from nasal catarrh say they get splendid results by using an atomizer. For their benefit we prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Except that it is liquid it is in all respects like the healing, helpful, pain-alleviating Cream Balm that the public has been familiar with for years. No cocaine nor other dangerous drug in it. The soothing spray is a remedy that relieves at once. All druggists, 75c, including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 50 Warren Street, New York.

COMING OUT PARTY.

CASH-TOWN, Sept. 20.—The Cash-town Civic League gave a Coming Out Party at the home of Miss Mary Jones on Thursday evening, September 9th. The President, Mrs. William R. Robert, in a few well chosen remarks introduced the League to the public. Mrs. John Diehl in a very able manner told what the aims of the League were to be in a moral and educational way. Miss Mary Jones gave a very good talk on "Why the town should have a Civic League. Refreshments were served by the ladies, all were daintily dressed in white. A number of the gentlemen present responded to the call for speeches. Miss Alma Henry read a humorous selection, and all joined in singing America, after which they all returned to their homes very much pleased with the evening's entertainment.

Fortune Telling

Does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—womanly health.

The woman who neglects her health is neglecting the very foundation of all good fortune. For without health love loses its lustre and gold is but dross.

Womanly health when lost or impaired may generally be regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This Prescription has, for over 40 years, been curing delicate, weak, pain-wracked women, by the hundreds of thousands and this too in the privacy of their homes without their having to submit to indelicate questionings and offensively repugnant examinations.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free.

All correspondence held as sacredly confidential. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. PIERCE'S GREAT FAMILY DOCTOR BOOK, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, newly revised up-to-date edition—1000 pages, answers in Plain English hosts of delicate questions which every woman, single or married, ought to know about. Sent free, in plain wrapper to any address on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only, or in cloth binding for 31 stamps.

Governors of Pennsylvania

WILLIAM FISHER PACKER—1858-1861.

Another newspaper man to become governor of Pennsylvania was William Fisher Packer, born in 1807 in Center county. At the age of thirteen years he began to learn the printing trade in the office of the Public Inquirer at Sunbury. Mr. Packer began the study of law in 1827, but later returned to newspaper work, becoming editor of the Locomotive Gazette, published at Williamsport. He afterward helped to establish the Keystone at Harrisburg and remained in that city until 1841. He was defeated for senate in 1835. In 1847 he was elected to the house of representatives and was made speaker. He was re-elected in 1848, and in the following year he defeated Andrew G. Curtin for the state senate. He was the Democratic candidate for governor in 1857 and was elected over two other candidates, David Wilmot and Isaac Hazelhurst. After retiring from office he spent the remainder of his days in Williamsport.

The Patriotism Of Penelope.

Copyrighted 1909, by Associated Literary Press

"A man who can vote and won't vote ought to be made to vote," said Penelope dramatically.

"Of course if you feel that way," Oswald Deering said stiffly.

"Every woman should feel that way"—Penelope's scornful little nose was in the air—"and every man. The welfare of the country depends on it."

"I'm not so sure"—Deering was fast becoming aggressive—"that a woman knows"

And then Penelope blazed. "Of course"—becoming aggressive—"that a woman ought not to dabble in such things. But the blood of my ancestors is in me. All of my grandfathers were in the Revolution and in the war of 1812. My father served with honor in the civil war and my brothers in the Spanish war. How can I help feeling that the men who wouldn't fight were"—She stopped.

Oswald was very pale. "I know what you were going to say—that because I didn't fight I was a coward."

Something in the stillness of his anger frightened Penelope.

"I didn't mean"—she faltered.

"Yes, you did," he told her. "You meant that I was a coward because I didn't go to the war when your brothers did. But there were reasons."

"There are always reasons," she flashed out. "You may now say there are reasons why you are not going to vote tomorrow."

"Well, I don't think you could understand if I told you, Penelope."

She stood up and faced him. "Oh," she said, and her little figure in the clinging mauve gown was drawn up to its full height—"oh, I always thought that you put women on a low plane, Oswald, and now I know it."

"It isn't that," he said doggedly, "but I think I ought not to be made to explain my reason for not voting. It involves some one else. I shall stay away from the polls tomorrow as a matter of conscience, Penelope."

Her little nose was buried in the bunch of violets he had brought her.

"I don't think it is worth arguing about," she said at last wearily as she lifted her head from the flowers. "But I really think we couldn't be happy if we feel so differently."

"You mean"—He had risen and was standing beside her.

"I mean that—that I think we have made a mistake."

"Then you won't marry me, Penelope?"

"I have never said that I would, Oswald."

"No, but you gave me hope. You know that I thought—"

Before his piercing eyes her own dropped.

"But I never really said 'Yes,'" she whispered.

"I know that. But I understood that it was because you wanted to be sure." His voice broke, and then all at once he gathered himself together and, with his head held high, said sternly, "Don't talk of a man's allegiance to his country, Penelope, when you have failed in your allegiance to your love."

"I don't love you," she began, but he interrupted her. "You do. You know you love me, Penelope. But deep down in your heart you don't trust me. And I don't want that kind of love. I want the love of a woman who believes in me."

She was staring at him in a dazed way. "Then—then—goodbye," she quivered.

He came over and took both of her hands in his. "Oh, little Penelope," he said, "why can't you trust me?"

Her lips quivered. "Why can't you tell me," she demanded tearfully, "why you won't vote, Oswald?"

He hesitated and then shook his head. "No; it's a matter best left undiscussed. Perhaps some day you'll see things differently."

Her chin was raised mutinously. "I shall always love my country, Oswald."

"And I shall always love you." And with that he was gone.

Left alone, she wondered if it was true. Surely in a little while Oswald would be back begging her to forgive him.

But the next day came, and the men gathered at the polls, and Penelope's father and his sons went out to vote as the men of their family had done before them for conscience and for country, and at dinner they toasted their favorite candidate in water from their own clear spring, and their father made a little speech. "We have all been fighters," he said, "and I hope I shall never have a son or a grandson to break our record."

And Penelope, thinking of Oswald, winced. What place had he among these men of war?

But when the feasting was over her youngest brother, Bruce, said, "I've always felt that there was no force like the force of arms, but I tell you I heard something about Oswald Deering today that made me believe in a new kind of courage."

"What was it?" they demanded.

"Well, the nurse who takes care of Oswald's mother told me when I was waiting in Oswald's office today. It seems that his father was killed in the civil war and that since then his mother has been very delicate."

"When the first news of fighting in Cuba came Oswald was wild to go, but she opposed it strongly and at last, when she found that his mind was made up, she had a heart attack that nearly killed her. So Oswald stayed at home and studied medicine, but he has never really got over his disappointment."

Penelope's father brought his hand down on the table with a bang. "But he should have gone at his country's call," and Penelope's eyes flashed.

"And have killed his mother?" Bruce asked quietly. For a moment the older man was silent, and then he said, "It was a test of patriotism, but the boy did the right thing."

Penelope leaned across the table and asked an eager question, but only her mother knew of her real interest and why her cheeks were pale and her eyes shadowed.

"But—but do you know the reason why Oswald didn't vote?" she demanded.

CANDIDATES ON STATE TICKET

When the voters of the county begin to study the ballot to be voted for at the coming election, they should bear in mind the three paragraphs in the speech of the temporary Chairman of the last Democratic State convention, descriptive of the characters of the candidates nominated, and if they measure up to the proposed standard why not give them a hearty whole souled support. These paragraphs were:

"We shall name for the office of State Treasurer a worthy successor to the only Treasurer of Pennsylvania, within the memory of living men, who was able or willing to uncover the fraud and crime, which for generations past have marked the Republican administration of the State's Affairs.

"We shall nominate for Auditor General a man who, if elected, will never account to the people for his stewardship at the bar of a criminal court.

"We shall place before the people as a fit aspirant for a seat on the bench of the Supreme Court, a jurist whose name people can pronounce, and whose decisions the bar of Pennsylvania can defend."

THE COUNTY TICKET.

The Democratic party at the primaries selected a ticket which should have the enthusiastic and unqualified support by every Democrat, for it is in accord with the Democratic principles of good government. This ticket was nominated by the will of the majority and this majority that nominates and elects should ever be respected and supported by every Democrat, for it is the voice of the people. When a ticket so named contains the names of good, clean, honorable citizens, who have lived useful lives, every Democrat should become an active agent to assure their election at the polls.

LAST DAY TO PAY TAX OCT. 1

The last day to pay taxes to qualify a voter to cast a ballot at the election in November is on Friday, October 1st. No one who has not paid a tax within two years is entitled to cast a vote, and every young man who voted on age last fall must pay a tax this year to be able to cast a ballot. There are countries where taxes are collected with a big stick to keep an extravagant aristocracy in idleness. But in this land of the free taxes are paid to place in the hands of every elector a big stick in the shape of a ballot, to say who shall run the people's government and it is up to every elector to cast his ballot for those who will economically and faithfully administer the affairs of the people. See that your taxes are paid so that you may be eligible to vote.

Famous Chairs Come to Town.

H. O. Himes of this place has bought from Samuel Trimmer, of York, the famous Barton or Batwell chairs, eight in number, six without arms and two with and of the Chippendale make. They are considered rare specimens with an authentic history. Rev. Thomas Barton came as missionary from England to Christ church, Huntington township, near York Springs in 1755, bringing the chairs with him. A successor as pastor of the church was Rev. David Batwell, who became owner of chairs, and in the Revolution period he was such a royalist that he returned to England and his furniture was left with a Collins family, and six of the chairs when sold were bought by the late Dr. D. McC. White of Hampton. Mr. Trimmer after acquiring these six chairs located two others, one with a Mr. Wherley and it is said it cost Mr. Trimmer about $600 to become owner of the full set which have now become the property of H. O. Himes.

DEATH LIST OF WEEK.

Well Known Citizen of Town, Chas. H. Ruff, Passes Away.

CHARLES H. RUFF died at his home on Stratton street on Sunday night, aged 66 years and 24 days. He had been confined to his bed for several weeks, sustaining two paralytic strokes about six weeks ago. Mr. Ruff was a man of sterling qualities, enjoying the respect and confidence of this community. He began life as a huckster and later conducted a grocery store on Baltimore street with his brother William. More than twenty-five years ago, upon the death of Mr. Jeff Myers, he succeeded the latter as Clerk to the County Commissioners, and held this position for about twelve years. He was thorough and painstaking in this as well as every position he occupied. As a penman he was neatness personified and his records are among the best the county has. His care and attention made his services sought as an assistant in the court house offices from time to time. He was president of the Gettysburg Building and Loan Association and succeeded Mr. R. E. Culp as secretary and his care and faithfulness to neat and accurate bookkeeping was again displayed. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and of the Odd Fellows and belonged to St. James Lutheran church. Mr. Ruff was most courteous as a public official, ready to serve any one and to those to whom he was best known, ever looking on the bright side. The funeral will be held this Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Dr. J. A. Clutz conducting the services, with interment in the Evergreen cemetery. Mr. Ruff was twice married, first to Miss Emma Howe, who died in 1876, and in 1879 to Miss Sarah E. Culp, who survives with two children by first marriage, Mrs. Edward Cress of Hanover, and Miss Cora Ruff at home. Two brothers and three sisters survive, John U. Ruff and Daniel Ruff of New Oxford, Mrs. Lucy Krumrine of Littlestown, Mrs. Daniel Ditzler and Mrs. Emanuel King of Hanover.

MRS. ELIZABETH MCALLISTER, widow of John McAllister died on Monday evening about 5 o'clock at her home on Baltimore Street, after an illness of four weeks, aged 72 years, 2 months and 12 days. She was the daughter of Samuel McCreary of this place and after her marriage lived many years on the McAllister farm and later moved near Round Top and after death of her husband six years ago moved to town. She is survived by one brother Robt. McCreary of Kansas. The funeral will be to-morrow, Thursday, morning at 11 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church of which she was a life long member, services by Rev. D. W. Woods and interment in the Evergreen Cemetery.

HENRY MYERS, a former citizen of New Oxford, died in the Lancaster hospital on Saturday, Sept. 18, after a lingering illness from Bright's disease, aged 52 years. Deceased was a son of the late John Myers and was reared on a farm in Hamilton township. About 25 years ago he conducted a livery in New Oxford. The building with its contents, including several horses was destroyed by fire. For the past 20 years or more he has been engaged in the insurance business in Lancaster county and city. The remains were brought to the home of his mother, Mrs. Maria Myers near New Oxford, on Monday morning of last week, and funeral was held Wednesday morning, services being held by Rev. W. A. Korn, after which interment was made in the New Oxford cemetery. Deceased is survived by his mother, three sisters, Misses Jennie, Beckie and Annie Myers, all at home, and two brothers, William and Oliver, both of Hamilton township.

MRS. DIANA DIEHL, widow of the late Wm. Diehl of near New Oxford, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Geo. Yohe, of Hanover, on last Friday from a complication of diseases, after an illness of several years. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. George Yohe of Hanover, with whom she had made her home, and one brother, Henry Stock, of New Oxford. She is also survived by two step-daughters, Mrs. Elias Fissel of Gettysburg, and Mrs. Geo. C. Sheely of New Oxford, and one step-son, Daniel Diehl of Mountpleasant township. The funeral was on Sunday Sept. 26. Brief services were held at the house after which the funeral proceeded to New Oxford, where further services were conducted in St. Paul's Lutheran church by Rev. Geo. N. Lauffer. Interment on the family lot in the New Oxford cemetery.

MRS. AMANDA ROLAND, widow of the late Josephus S. Roland, died at her home along the York pike, midway between New Oxford and Abbottstown on last Wednesday morning, after a lingering illness from a complication of diseases, aged 76 years, 7 months and 8 days. The funeral took place from her late home Friday morning, services and interment at Abbottstown Lutheran church. Deceased is survived by three sons, Milton, Edward and Linus Roland, and one daughter, Mrs. John Forry. Her husband died several years ago.

DR. LEONARD PEARSON, State Veterinarian, and dean of the veterinarian department of the University of Pennsylvania, and well known in this county and abroad, as a learned scientist in his branch, died on Monday of last week in Newfoundland, where he had been for some time in search of health. Dr. Pearson had a number of warm friends in this county.

MRS. MARGARET C. DELTZ died at her home in Littlestown on Tuesday of last week aged 52 years and 1 day. She was a daughter of the late John Walter of Littlestown. The funeral was held on last Thursday, Rev. Father Kohl conducting the mass of requiem in St. Aloisius Church and interment being made in the Catholic cemetery of Littlestown. She leaves beside her husband, one daughter, Mary Deltz, at home.

MRS. ERNEST MILLER died at her home in Hilltown, Franklin township, on last Friday, aged 25 years, 6 months and 6 days. The funeral was held on Sunday, Rev. D. T. Koser conducting the services at Flohr's church, where interment was made. She was a daughter of McClellan Bucher of Franklin township, and leaves beside her husband, an infant son, and is survived by her father, sister and a brother, Faith Bucher and Curtis Bucher of Franklin township.

CORA RIDENOUR died at the home of her parents in Carlisle on Saturday, Sept. 18, in her 21st year, from tuberculosis. She had been ill for many months. The family at one time lived in Gettysburg. She is survived by her parents and two sisters, Mrs. Lillie Anderson and Mrs. Esther Anderson, both of Harrisburg.

MRS. MARY J. BRITCHER, widow of the late Henry Britcher, died at her home in Hanover on Sunday, aged 81 years, 4 months, and 7 days. The funeral yesterday, services by Rev. George W. Fans, interment in Mt. Olivet cemetery. She leaves six sons, William and Howard of Baltimore, John of York, Samuel of Johnstown, Charles and Oscar of Hanover.

JOSEPH LINWOOD LITTLE, infant son of Charles Little, of McSherrystown, died Saturday, September 25, of gastritis, aged 15 months. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon, at St. Mary's Catholic church, Rev. Father Reudter officiating. Interment was made in St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery.

Forty-Fifth Annual S. S. Convention

Unless all signs fail the coming State Convention of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association to be held in Harrisburg, October 13, 14 and 15, will far exceed in numbers, interest and enthusiasm, all former meetings of the Association.

The past year has been one of intense activity along Sunday school lines in every county throughout the State. Statistics recently gathered show marvelous growths in Teacher Training, Home Department Work and Organized Adult Bible Classes. The magazine writer who said that Sunday school work is on the decline certainly did not get his information from Pennsylvania.

All railroads will sell reduced rate tickets. The delegate credentials for Adams County are issued through Lily Dougherty, Corresponding Secretary of the County Association.

Programs for the convention and other printed matter can be obtained by writing to W. G. Landes, General Secretary, 701-2 Witherspoon Bldg., Philadelphia, Pa.

Not Coughing Today?

Yet you may cough tomorrow! Better be prepared for it when it comes. Ask your doctor about keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. Then when the hard cold or cough first appears you have a doctor's medicine at hand. Your doctor's approval of its use will certainly set all doubt at rest. Do as he says. He knows. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Robust health is a great safeguard against attacks of throat and lung troubles, but constipation will destroy the best of health. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Pills.

FALL FASHIONS FOR OCTOBER 4

North American's Special Edition to be issued on Monday.

The North American announces that its Fall Fashion number will be issued on Monday, October 4, in conjunction with the regular news edition for that day.

In the esteem of The North American, fashions are legitimate news, and therefore the latest word about fashions is quite as worthy of circulation as the reports of the latest experts of aviation.

The paper maintains a large special staff in Paris, and from these experts comes a striking array of photographs and drawing of the very last creations of the foremost dictators of Parisian styles. They are put out first in America through The North American, and will be seen in its Fall Fashion number weeks in advance of their appearance in other publications in this country.

Undoubtedly there will be a big demand for this issue of the paper. It will be a regular bargain day, the buyer getting the news as well as all the latest fashions of the day. News-dealers will supply the increased demand if orders are placed in advance.

Returns from Convention.

Charles B. Kitzmiller attended the State Convention of the Order of Independent Americans held at Hazleton, last week. Mr. Kitzmiller was the only member of the order present from this place and single handed took charge of the contest for place of meeting next year. He was opposed by Chester with a delegation of seven men on the ground. Gettysburg lost by four votes, the ballot being 82 to 78. This result should make Gettysburg a sure winner next year.

AN ORDINANCE

GRANTING PERMISSION UNTO W. H. LANIER IN TRUST FOR A PROPOSED STREET RAILWAY COMPANY, ITS SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS, TO CONSTRUCT, OPERATE AND MAINTAIN A LINE OF STREET RAILWAY WITHIN THE BOROUGH OF GETTYSBURG, ADAMS COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, UPON CERTAIN STREETS THEREOF, AND PROVIDING THE CONDITIONS UPON WHICH THE SAME MAY BE CONSTRUCTED AND MAINTAINED.

Whereas, W. H. Lanier, of the City of York, York County, Pennsylvania, and others associated with him, have expressed an intention to apply for a charter for a proposed street railway company to construct and operate a street railway, a portion of the line of which will be within the limits of the Borough of Gettysburg, Adams County, Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, it is necessary that the consent of the Borough of Gettysburg to construct said street railway within the limits thereof be granted by said Borough before such application for a charter be made as aforesaid, now, therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Gettysburg, Adams county, Pennsylvania, that permission be and is hereby granted unto W. H. Lanier in trust for a proposed street railway company, its successors and assigns, to construct, operate and maintain a line of single track street railway, including the necessary and proper piers, switches, fixtures and other appliances, with convenient turnouts, switches and sidings within the Borough of Gettysburg, Adams County, Pennsylvania, upon, over and along the following described route, to wit: Beginning at a point in the eastern boundary line of the Borough of Gettysburg, approximately two thousand (2000) feet south of Hanover street at the point of crossing said Hanover street of Rock Creek; extending thence in a northerly direction over and through private property belonging to S. McC. Swope, W. C. Sheely, D. M. Wolf, W. C. Ziegler and E. P. Sachs, crossing East Middle street, extending to a point on Hanover street, which point is approximately one thousand feet west of the point of crossing by said Hanover street of Rock Creek; thence over, upon and along said Hanover street in a westerly direction to York street; thence over, upon and along York street in a westerly direction to a point in Centre Square in said borough, 60 feet west of line dividing Centre Square and York street.

Subject to the conditions and terms hereinafter mentioned.

Section 2. In consideration of the rights granted under Section 1 of this ordinance the said proposed street railway company, its successors and assigns, shall at all times hereafter keep and maintain that portion of the street occupied by the track or tracks of its railway lying between the rails and within twenty-four inches outside of each rail in the same condition of repair and with same material as the remainder of the street over which the said track shall be constructed, as well as all that portion of said street lying between the track and any siding, switch or turnout, and upon neglect or refusal to perform, make or do, the necessary work or repairs after five days notice in writing from the Borough, then the Borough may do and perform the same and recover the cost and expense thereof from the said railway company with twenty per cent. added thereto.

Section 3. The said line of street railway shall be located and constructed in accordance with a street grade to be given by the Borough Council, or its authorized agents, and the same shall be laid as nearly as possible in the center of said street, and the poles which shall be standard and uniform appearance, shall be located under the supervision of said Borough Council, and at such places as its or its authorized agents, shall designate, and the wires to be strung thereon shall be strung at a height of not less than eighteen (18) feet above the surface of said railway tracks; the said railway shall be located and constructed upon, over and along the street, sidewalk, street pavement or crossing displaced by the location, erection or construction of said railway tracks or poles.

Section 4. The rails used in said track, switches, turnouts and sidings shall be laid and kept level with the surface of the street, and upon neglect or refusal of the said street railway company to so keep and maintain the said rails, then the Borough may after five days notice in writing to the said company, do and perform the work of repairs necessary to keep same in said condition and recover the cost and expense thereof from said railway company with twenty per cent. added thereto. The turnouts, switches and sidings shall be of the standard "Tee" (T) type, provided, however, that if at any time in the future the Borough shall desire to have streets, or any portions thereof, occupied by said railway under this ordinance the said railway company shall lay down and use upon the streets or portions thereof so paved as aforesaid, such standard and uniform appearance may be designated by the Borough of Gettysburg prior to the commencing of the work of paving.

Section 5. The said railway company, its successors and assigns, shall at all times hereafter keep harmless and indemnify the said Borough of Gettysburg from any and all damage that may accrue to any person or persons, to any property or to the said Borough by reason of the negligent construction, operation or maintenance of said street railway.

Section 6. All rights and privileges granted under this ordinance shall be hereditary and void unless a charter for said proposed street railway company shall be obtained within one year after the approval of this ordinance and said railway company shall in good faith commence the construction of the line of said street railway on the route hereinbefore authorized within six (6) months after the granting of said charter, and shall fully complete and commence actual operation on said route within six months after the work of construction thereof shall have been commenced.

Section 7. The Borough of Gettysburg shall at all times hereafter have the right to cross and re-cross the tracks of said railway company through, under and beneath said road bed, and do all necessary digging, boring or excavating through or under the same for the placing of water pipes, culverts, conduits, gas or heat pipes, tiling or crossing drains or other appliances necessary or desired by the said Borough of Gettysburg, or the citizens thereof duly authorized by the said Borough, and the said Borough of Gettysburg shall save and keep harmless the said proposed street railway company, its successors and assigns of and from all damage for or by reason thereof, and shall promptly replace all material taken from the tracks of said company and shall place said tracks in as good condition as before.

Section 8. Upon the failure to comply with any of the conditions hereinbefore imposed this ordinance shall become null and void.

Enacted and ordained this 7th day of Sept. A. D., 1909.

J. B. HAMILTON, President.

Attest: C. B. KITZMILLER, Secretary.

Approved this 11th day of September, A. D., 1909.

AN ORDINANCE

ACCEPTING THE GRADE, BUILDING LINE, ETC., SURVEY AS MADE BY MASON D. PRATT, CIVIL ENGINEER, AND CONFIRMING THE SAME AS THE LEGAL GRADE OF THE BOROUGH FOR THE ERECTION AND CONSTRUCTION OF PAVEMENTS, CURBS, GUTTERS, ETC.

Be it ordained and enacted by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Gettysburg, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the said Burgess and Town Council, that the grade survey made and prepared by Mason D. Pratt, civil engineer, of streets, alleys and public thoroughfares, and of the pavements, curbs and gutters and the same, in the Borough of Gettysburg, and the location of the building lines of the streets, lanes and public thoroughfares of said Borough, is approved and accepted, and the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Gettysburg hereby approve and accept, and establishes the grades as so furnished by the said Mason D. Pratt as the legal grades for the Borough of Gettysburg, the record of which survey is contained in a book marked "Profiles, Gettysburg, Pa., adopted Dec. 1908, Mason D. Pratt, C. E., Harrisburg, Pa." filed with the Borough Surveyor, a copy of which is hereto attached.

Sec. 2. That the monuments and established proper places in the Borough, established under the supervision of the said Mason D. Pratt, from data of said survey, are accepted.

Sec. 3. All grades heretofore made that are inconsistent and in conflict with the Mason D. Pratt grade and building line survey are hereby repealed.

Enacted into an ordinance this 7th day of Sept., 1909.

J. B. HAMILTON, President.

Attest: C. B. KITZMILLER, Secretary.

Approved this 10th day of Sept., 1909.

A New Novel of Love and Victory

By Rex Beach

DASHING with breathless interest to an unexpected and triumphant climax, this new Rex Beach novel—from the first page to the last—has all the sheer power of The Spoilers and all the quick humor and human sympathy of The Barrier. The background, superb in its robust romance, is Alaska, not the Alaska of the mines, but another phase, altogether—the Alaska where red blood runs in the veins of men—yes, and of women. The hero is a young civil-engineer, in love with the daughter of a financier. In search of a fortune, he has faced all forms of hardship in Alaska. When he has almost given up hope, he meets Cherry Malotte—the Cherry of The Spoilers—all fire and grit and tenderness, and the two join forces. Their battle with fate is a page from life itself—intense, powerful, passionately true.

INSECT FRIENDS OF FARM

ONE THAT FEEDS UPON AND DESTROYS TREE BORERS.

Dentistry as Applied to Trees in the Removal of Decayed Portions—Bark Beetles.

An insect, slightly resembling the dragon fly, was received at the Division of Zoology of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture by State Zoologist Surface, accompanied by a letter having the name attached of a prominent Luzerne county physician, who wrote: "The enclosed specimen is highly destructive to my maple shade trees kindly inform me what to do."

The specimen proved to be a Thalassia, which State Zoologist Surface pronounced "a destroyer of other insects, and especially of some of the worst enemies of trees." In this respect it is like the lady bug, which feeds upon the San Jose scale. The Thalassia has long antennae and a tail composed of three black hairs, like those of a horse's tail, each about three inches long. These form a long tube which it inserts in the holes made in trees by borers, and having encountered a borer it deposits its eggs in or near it. These eggs develop larvae which feed upon the borer and destroy it. Owners of fruit and shade trees, instead of destroying the Thalassia, should protect and preserve this useful insect.

Dentistry as Applied to Trees.

State Zoologist Surface found a letter in the mail sent to the Division of Zoology of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, asking how to prevent decay in a tree from making further progress. The writer said: "We have a cherry tree whose trunk has rotted considerably. What can be done to save the tree? Is it a good plan to cut out the dead part and fill up the hole with cement?"

Professor Surface replied: "The proper treatment for the cavity of your cherry tree is to clean this out, removing the decayed wood; then wash or spray the interior with an antiseptic, such as a two per cent. solution of formalin, or a very dilute solution of mercuric bichloride, which is corrosive sublimated; then paint it with ordinary paint of any kind, and finally fill the cavity with any kind of cement, or use one part of Portland cement with about four or five parts of sand.

"This is practically nothing else than the principle of modern dentistry applied to the preservation of the tree. The dentist cleans out the cavity of a decaying tooth, applies an antiseptic to prevent further decay, and fills the tooth with some substance that by preservation will prevent the possibility of further decay. We are coming to see that the treatment of all living things for ill and afflictions is based upon the same fundamental biological principle."

Bark Beetles in Trees

Specimen twigs of fruit trees reached the Division of Zoology of the department of Agriculture, Harrisburg, from Cambridge Springs, Pa., which the sender supposed were infested with San Jose scale. State Zoologist Surface, in acknowledging their receipt, gave the following information as to the cause of their badly appearing condition:

"We find that the pear twigs are infested with scolytids or bark beetles, which are boring in the dead wood beneath the bark. They have not caused the death of these twigs, but they are there because the twigs are dead and afford favorable places for the beetles to live. It is probably that the pear twigs died by blight, and that the beetles came later. There is nothing to do but to cut out the dead and dying parts, and burn them promptly. For all cases of blight cut out and burn the blighted parts."

CHAMBERLAIN'S Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is today the best known medicine in use for the relief and cure of bowel complaints. It cures griping, diarrhoea, dysentery, and should be taken at the first unnatural looseness of the bowels. It is equally valuable for children and adults. It always cures. Sold by The Peoples Drug Store.

THE PATRIOTISM OF PENLOPE

Bruce nodded. "Same reason. His mother insists that he shall vote the ticket that his father always did, and his conscience won't let him. He says conditions are different now. So he doesn't vote at all."

"I think he's somewhat tied to his mother's apron strings." Penelope's voice was scornful.

"Little sister"—Bruce's steady gaze made her flush deeply—"if you knew what Oswald's mother had done for him, the sacrifices she made that he might go to college! She cannot live many months now, the nurse says, so I feel that he is right, even if she is wrong to demand it."

And after that Penelope fled to her room and thought it over. What a little prig she had been to call him a coward! He was braver than—why, he was the bravest man in the whole world to face the world's scorn for his mother's sake.

And even as she thought it she resolved that she would tell him at once. It was late, and beneath the dull gray clouds in the west was the line of deep orange where the sun had set.

Far down the street she could see the light in Oswald's office, and toward that light when she had slipped on her raincoat and hat she made her way.

Her timid knock brought her lover to the door.

"Penelope!" he stammered when he saw her.

"Yes"—she flitted past him and dropped into the big chair in front of the fire—"I've come to make up."

She was smiling up at him, but there came no answering smile.

"I want you to forgive me," she faltered.

"For calling me a coward?" There was a bitter note in his voice.

"I—I understand now that it was because of your mother that you didn't go."

"You had to be told that?" he asked sternly. "No belief in me brought you here until you had proof—oh Penelope!"

"You should have told me, Oswald."

"After your distrust, no."

"There was so much of finality in his tone that she stood up trembling.

"Then there's nothing else to say," she murmured and went to the door, a little forlorn figure in her gray raincoat and soft felt hat.

Then suddenly she wheeled and came back.

"Oswald," she said and stood in front of him, confessing like a child. "I love you. I ask you to forgive me."

He was very white. "No," he said.

"Oh," she reproached him, "a brave soldier forgives his enemy!"

"You have told me that I am not a brave soldier."

"You are the man I want to marry," she said.

"I am?" His lips were set in a grim line. He came up to her and caught her hands almost roughly in his. "Then if you marry me you shall vow allegiance to your husband."

"What do you mean?" tremulously.

"Say what I tell you," he commanded. "I love you, Oswald, more than home or friends or country."

And, with white lips, she repeated it.

And then he took her in his arms tenderly. "Little girl, little girl," he whispered, "forgive me for hurting you, but a man has his pride."

"I know," she whispered back, her eyes shining, "a man has his pride, especially a brave man like you, Oswald."

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION SUBMITTED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION, BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, AND PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

A JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing amendments to sections eight and twenty-one of article four, sections eleven and twelve of article five, sections two, three, and four of article eight, section one of article twelve, and sections two and seven of article fourteen, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, and providing a schedule for carrying the amendments into effect.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following are proposed as amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amendment One—To Article Four, Section Eight.

Section 2. Amend section eight of article four of the Constitution of Pennsylvania which reads as follows:—

"He shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of two-thirds of all the members of the Senate, appoint a Secretary of the Commonwealth and an Attorney General during pleasure, a Superintendent of Public Instruction for four years, and such other officers of the Commonwealth as he is or may be authorized by the Constitution or by law to appoint; he shall have power to fill all vacancies that may happen, in offices to which he may appoint, during the recess of the Senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session; he shall have power to fill any vacancy that may happen, during the recess of the Senate, in the office of Auditor General, State Treasurer, Secretary of Internal Affairs or Superintendent of Public Instruction, in a judicial office, or in any other elective office which he is or may be authorized to fill; if the vacancy shall happen during the session of the Senate, the Governor shall nominate to the Senate, before their final adjournment, a proper person to fill said vacancy; but in any such case of vacancy, in an elective office, a person shall be chosen to said office at the next general election, unless the vacancy shall happen within three calendar months immediately preceding such election, in which case the election for said office shall be held at the second succeeding general election. In acting on executive nominations the Senate shall sit with open doors, and, in confirming or rejecting the nominations of the Governor, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and shall be entered on the journal," so as to read as follows:—

He shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of two-thirds of all the members of the Senate, appoint a Secretary of the Commonwealth and an Attorney General during pleasure, a Superintendent of Public Instruction for four years, and such other officers of the Commonwealth as he is or may be authorized by the Constitution or by law to appoint; he shall have power to fill all vacancies that may happen, in offices to which he may appoint, during the recess of the Senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session; he shall have power to fill any vacancy that may happen, during the recess of the Senate, in the office of Auditor General, State Treasurer, Secretary of Internal Affairs or Superintendent of Public Instruction, in a judicial office, or in any other elective office which he is or may be authorized to fill; if the vacancy shall happen during the session of the Senate, the Governor shall nominate to the Senate, before their final adjournment, a proper person to fill said vacancy; but in any such case of vacancy, in an elective office, a person shall be chosen to said office on the next election day appropriate to such office, according to the provisions of this Constitution, unless the vacancy shall happen within two calendar months immediately preceding such election day, in which case the election for said office shall be held on the second succeeding election day appropriate to such office. In acting on executive nominations the Senate shall sit with open doors, and, in confirming or rejecting the nominations of the Governor, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and shall be entered on the journal.

Amendment Two—To Article Four, Section Twenty-one.

Section 3. Amend section twenty-one of article four, which reads as follows:—"The term of the Secretary of Internal Affairs shall be four years; of the Auditor General three years; and of the State Treasurer two years. These officers shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the State at general elections. No person elected to the office of Auditor General or State Treasurer shall be capable of holding the same office for two consecutive terms," so as to read:—

The terms of the Secretary of Internal Affairs, the Auditor General, and the State Treasurer shall each be four years; and they shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the State at general elections; but a State Treasurer, elected in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, shall serve for three years, and his successors shall be elected at the general election in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve and in every fourth year thereafter. No person elected to the office of Auditor General or State Treasurer shall be capable of holding the same office for two consecutive terms.

Amendment Three—To Article Five, Section Eleven.

Section 4. Amend section eleven of article five, which reads as follows:—"Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, justices of the peace or aldermen shall be elected in the several wards, districts, boroughs and townships, by the qualified electors thereof, in such manner as shall be directed by law, and shall be commissioned by the Governor for a term of five years. No township, ward, district or borough shall elect more than two justices of the peace or aldermen without the consent of a majority of the qualified electors within such township, ward or borough; no person shall be elected to such office unless he shall have resided within the township, borough, ward or district for one year next preceding his election. In cities containing over fifty thousand inhabitants, not more than one alderman shall be elected in each ward or district," so as to read:—

Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, justices of the peace or aldermen shall be elected in the several wards, districts, boroughs or townships, by the qualified electors thereof, at the municipal election, in such manner as shall be directed by law, and shall be commissioned by the Governor for a term of six years. No township, ward, district or borough shall elect more than two justices of the peace or aldermen without the consent of a majority of the qualified electors within such township, ward or borough; no person shall be elected to such office unless he shall have resided within the township, borough, ward or district for one year next preceding his election. In cities containing over fifty thousand inhabitants, not more than one alderman shall be elected in each ward or district.

Amendment Four—To Article Five, Section Twelve.

Section 5. Amend section twelve of article five of the Constitution, which reads as follows:—

"In Philadelphia there shall be established, for each thirty thousand inhabitants, one court, not of record, of police and civil causes, with jurisdiction not exceeding one hundred dollars; such courts shall be held by magistrates whose term of office shall be five years and they shall be elected on general ticket by the qualified voters at large; and in the election of the said magistrates no voter shall vote for more than two-thirds of the number of persons to be elected when more than one are to be chosen; they shall be compensated only by fixed salaries, to be paid by said county; and shall exercise such jurisdiction, civil and criminal, except as herein provided, as is now exercised by aldermen, subject to such changes, not involving an increase of civil jurisdiction or conferring political duties, as may be made by law. In Philadelphia the office of alderman is abolished," so as to read as follows:—

In Philadelphia there shall be established, for each thirty thousand inhabitants, one court, not of record, of police and civil causes, with jurisdiction not exceeding one hundred dollars; such courts shall be held by magistrates whose term of office shall be six years, and they shall be elected on general ticket at the municipal election, by the qualified voters at large; and in the election of the said magistrates no voter shall vote for more than two-thirds of the number of persons to be elected when more than one are to be chosen; they shall be compensated only by fixed salaries, to be paid by said county; and shall exercise such jurisdiction, civil and criminal, except as herein provided, as is now exercised by aldermen, subject to such changes, not involving an increase of civil jurisdiction or conferring political duties, as may be made by law. In Philadelphia the office of alderman is abolished.

Amendment Five—To Article Eight, Section Two.

Section 6. Amend section two of article eight, which reads as follows:—"The general election shall be held annually on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November, but the General Assembly may by law fix a different day, two-thirds of all the members of each House consenting thereto; Provided, That such election shall always be held in an even-numbered year."

The general election shall be held biennially on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each even-numbered year, but the General Assembly may by law fix a different day, two-thirds of all the members of each House consenting thereto; Provided, That such election shall always be held in an even-numbered year.

Amendment Six—To Article Eight, Section Three.

Section 7. Amend section three of article eight, which reads as follows:—"All elections for city, ward, borough and township officers, for regular terms of service, shall be held on the third Tuesday of February," so as to read:—

All judges elected by the electors of the State at large may be elected at either a general or municipal election, as circumstances may require. All elections for judges of the courts for the several judicial districts, and for county, city, ward, borough, and township officers for regular terms of service, shall be held on the municipal election day; namely, the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each odd-numbered year, but the General Assembly may by law fix a different day, two-thirds of all the members of each House consenting thereto; Provided, That such election shall always be held in an odd-numbered year.

Amendment Seven—To Article Eight, Section Fourteen.

Section 8. Amend section fourteen of article eight, which reads as follows:—"District election boards shall consist of a judge and two inspectors, who shall be chosen annually by the citizens. Each elector shall have the right to vote for the judge and one inspector, and each inspector shall appoint one clerk. The first election board for any new district shall be selected, and vacancies in election boards filled, as shall be provided by law. Election officers shall be privileged from arrest upon days of election, and while engaged in making up and transmitting returns, except upon warrant of a court of record or a judge thereof, for an election fraud, for felony, or for wanton breach of the peace. In cities they may claim exemption from jury duty during their terms of service," so as to read:—

District election boards shall consist of a judge and two inspectors, who shall be chosen biennially, by the citizens at the municipal election; but the General Assembly may require said boards to be appointed in such manner as it may by law provide. Laws regulating the appointment of said boards may be enacted to apply to cities only: Provided, That such laws be uniform for cities of the same class. Each elector shall have the right to vote for the judge and one inspector, and each inspector shall appoint one clerk. The first election board for any new district shall be selected, and vacancies in election boards filled, as shall be provided by law. Election officers shall be privileged from arrest upon days of election, and while engaged in making up and transmitting returns, except upon warrant of a court of record, or judge thereof, for an election fraud, for felony, or for wanton breach of the peace. In cities they may claim exemption from jury duty during their terms of service.

Amendment Eight—To Article Twelve, Section One.

Section 9. Amend section one, article twelve, which reads as follows:—"All officers, whose selection is not provided for in this Constitution, shall be elected or appointed as may be directed by law," so as to read:—

All officers, whose selection is not provided for in this Constitution, shall be elected or appointed as may be directed by law: Provided, That elections of State officers shall be held on a general election day, and elections of local officers shall be held on a municipal election day, except when, in either case, special elections may be required to fill unexpired terms.

Amendment Nine—To Article Fourteen, Section Two.

Section 10. Amend section two of article fourteen, which reads as follows:—"County officers shall be elected at the general elections and shall hold their offices for the term of three years beginning on the first Monday of January next after their election, and until their successors shall be duly qualified; all vacancies not otherwise provided for, shall be filled in such manner as may be provided by law," so as to read:—

County officers shall be elected at the municipal elections and shall hold their offices for the term of four years, beginning on the first Monday of January next after their election, and until their successors shall be duly qualified; all vacancies not otherwise provided for, shall be filled in such manner as may be provided by law.

Amendment Ten—To Article Fourteen, Section Seven.

Section 11. Amend section seven, article fourteen, which reads as follows:—"Three county commissioners and three county auditors shall be elected in each county where such officers are chosen, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five and every third year thereafter; and in the election of said officers each qualified elector shall vote for no more than two persons, and the three persons having the highest number of votes shall be elected; any casual vacancy in the office of county commissioner or county auditor shall be filled, by the court of common pleas of the county in which such vacancy shall occur, by the appointment of an elector of the proper county who shall have voted for the commissioner or auditor whose place is to be filled," so as to read:—

Three county commissioners and three county auditors shall be elected in each county where such officers are chosen, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven and every fourth year thereafter; and in the election of said officers each qualified elector shall vote for no more than two persons, and the three persons having the highest number of votes shall be elected; any casual vacancy in the office of county commissioner or county auditor shall be filled by the court of common pleas of the county in which such vacancy shall occur, by the appointment of an elector of the proper county who shall have voted for the commissioner or auditor whose place is to be filled.

Schedule for the Amendments.

Section 12. That no inconvenience may arise from the changes in the Constitution of the Commonwealth, and in order to carry the same into complete operation, it is hereby declared that—

In the case of officers elected by act of Assembly at an odd number of years shall each be lengthened one year, but the Legislature may change the length of the term, provided the terms for which such officers are elected shall always be for an even number of years. The above extension of official terms shall not affect officers elected at the general election of one thousand nine hundred and eight; nor any city, ward, borough, township, or election division officers, whose terms of office, under existing law, end in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

In the year one thousand nine hundred and ten the municipal election shall be held on the third Tuesday of February, as heretofore; but all officers chosen at that election to an office the regular term of which is two years, and also all election officers and assessors chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven. All officers chosen at that election to offices the term of which is now four years, or is made four years by the operation of these amendments or this schedule, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen. All justices of the peace, magistrates, and aldermen, chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen. After the year nineteen hundred and ten, and until the Legislature shall otherwise provide, all terms of city, ward, borough, township, and election division officers shall begin on the first Monday of December in an odd-numbered year.

All city, ward, borough, and township officers holding office at the date of the approval of these amendments, whose terms of office may end in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, shall continue to hold their offices until the first Monday of December of that year.

All judges of the courts for the several judicial districts, and also all county officers, holding office at the date of the approval of these amendments, whose terms of office may end in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, shall continue to hold their offices until the first Monday of January, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

SIGNS OF REVOLT IN REPUBLICAN CAMP

Former Speaker McClain Declined to Talk For Ticket.

THE FAITHFUL ALARMED

Nomination of Stober Has Not Mollified the Lancaster Republicans or Appeased the Just Wrath of the "Red Rose" of That County.

Among the orators of Pennsylvania who were expected to participate in the opening of the Republican campaign at Allentown last week, Frank B. McClain, of Lancaster was conspicuous. Mr. McClain was speaker of the house of representatives at Harrisburg during the session of 1907. The political upheaval following the iniquities of the session of 1905 had admonished the machine managers that it was necessary to make at least a pretense of improvement, and Mr. McClain was made speaker as a concession to the decent element of his party.

Speaker McClain is known variously as the "Silver-Tongued Representative" and the "Red Rose of Lancaster." A man of good impulses and gifted with oratorical powers of exceptional merit, he is greatly in demand on the "stump." It was said at the time that the nomination of J. A. Stober for state treasurer was more for the purpose of enlisting the active help of McClain in the campaign than to honor Stober. There is a tradition that Lancasterians hold together under all circumstances, and it was believed that the nomination of a Lancaster man, however bad, would guarantee the services of McClain.

Events have proved that this expectation has been disappointed, however. Mr. McClain was invited to be the principal orator at the opening meeting, which is regarded as the most important of the campaign. That honor is usually bestowed on Penros himself, and it is said that he covers it. But exigencies this year suggested that it be used as a bait for Frank McClain. But it didn't work. On the day of the meeting he failed to appear, and his absence was explained by a statement that he had been called to Pittsburg on unavoidable legal business.

As a matter of fact Mr. McClain is not a lawyer and had no legal or any other kind of business in Pittsburg on the day of the Allentown meeting. He wasn't in Pittsburg at all on that day, but was quietly pursuing his own affairs at home, the contemplation of the consternation in Allentown on account of his absence, no doubt, being a considerable source of enjoyment to him. The following Harrisburg dispatch, published in the Philadelphia Record the day after the meeting, gives the real reason for McClain's absence from Allentown:

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 11.
There is trouble in the Republican political camp—not only trouble, but revolt. The manner in which the dictators of the organization rode rough-shod over the opponents of John F. Clay, for speaker of the House, and lashed the friends of Frank B. McClain, of Lancaster, may have some effect on the campaign this year.

It will be remembered that to mollify Lancaster county for the turning down of McClain the last Republican state convention nominated ex-Senator Stober, from Lancaster county, for state treasurer. This was not only to mollify Lancaster county but to bring McClain, a plain-spoken man, back into the fold and secure his services on the stump. McClain, however, has not given the least hint that he is prepared to take situation. It is said that he is still smarting under the punishment inflicted on him at the organization of the last house, when it departed from a time immemorial custom and refused to give him a second term as speaker.

Among the speakers announced for the Republican gathering near Allentown today was McClain, but he was not present. McClain was in Harrisburg yesterday, and told some of his friends that he did not propose to attend the Allentown meeting today. This is all the more significant, as both Stober, the candidate for auditor general, and Stober, of Lancaster, the Republican candidate for state treasurer, were at the meeting and opened the campaign, after a manner.

In expressing his determination not to take part in the campaign the former speaker was very emphatic, and, despite the fact that his county supplied the candidate for state treasurer, the "Red Rose of Lancaster" will not climb the "stump" this year. And the machine is doing everything it can to get more like McClain in the state.

President Taft said in his speech at Springfield, Mass., on Wednesday, that the people had voted $25,000 "for traveling expenses." This was inaccurate. The people obeyed laws and the organic law of the land forbids such an appropriation. Congress voted that money and in doing it the president violated the constitution and his oath of office. The chief magistrate of a great republic ought to be more careful in speech.

The Philadelphia machine is trying to stuff the registry list with as much zeal as it used to stuff the ballot boxes. But the people are wise to the conditions and the harvest will be a full fall.

MR. MUNSON ENDORSED

Williamsport Board of Trade Recommends Democratic Candidate For Election.

The character of a man is invariably reflected by his reputation at home. C. La Rue Munson, the Democratic nominee for justice of the supreme court, is certain to be a man in whom others may confide. People are gauged accurately by those who are in daily association with them, and in the action of his social and business associates there is guarantee of the merit of C. La Rue Munson, the Democratic nominee for justice of the supreme court.

At a meeting of the board of trade of Williamsport the other evening the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Williamsport board of trade, acting solely in a non-partisan way, and irrespective of politics, recommend the election of C. La Rue Munson as a justice of the supreme court, knowing him to have every qualification for that position, and particularly calling the attention of the business men of Pennsylvania to his long and active connection with a number of important manufacturing concerns and his practical knowledge and wide experience in commercial affairs, making him peculiarly well fitted to pass upon the many important questions which concern the interests of the business men of Pennsylvania.

The Quay Monument.

The board of public grounds and buildings at Harrisburg has declined to take action in the matter of the Quay statue, and by resolution adopted at its recent meeting referred the subject to and shifted responsibility upon the Quay monument commission. This was neither courageous nor consistent. The act of assembly provides that the board of public grounds and buildings and the statue commission shall select the site on the capitol grounds for the monument. As there is not and never has been a monument commission, the board of public grounds and buildings has simply dodged its own obligations by referring them to a body which has no existence. That is not creditable.

The constitution requires that all such appointments by the governor shall be confirmed by the state senate, and in the absence of such ratification there can be no valid appointment. The senate never confirmed the nomination of David H. Lane, J. Donald Cameron and Samuel Moody as commissioners to procure a statue of Quay or anybody else, and those gentlemen had no authority of law to contract for such an effigy. Having done so, however, in the absence of authority, the fiscal officers of the state ought to have refused payment. As this was not done, the only right course left for the board of public buildings and grounds was to emphatically refuse to desecrate the capitol or park with it.

Senator Quay never performed a valuable service for the people of Pennsylvania. He looted the treasury, debauched the politics and corrupted the public life of the commonwealth, and it he hadn't pleaded the statute of limitations to secure immunity from punishment for his crimes he probably would have died in jail or as a fugitive from justice. To hold the effigy of such a moral degenerate up to future generations as a type of the citizenship of Pennsylvania is an insult to the intelligence and an outrage upon the consciences of the people. But in his cowardly evasion of an obvious duty the board of public grounds and buildings has paved the way to this disgraceful result.

A Call Upon Frick and Carnegie.

The statue of Matthew Stanley Quay remains unplaced by the ungrateful Pennsylvanians. Will not Mr. Frick and Mr. Carnegie combine to buy a site for it in some pleasant corner of Pittsburg, if such there be, where in springtime the blossoms of the plum trees may fall upon it as, wafted by the gentle winds, the rose-leaves flutter over the tomb of Omar the Terrible in Naishapur?—New York World.

Study the proposed constitutional amendments. The proposition to give the Pennsylvania legislature the right to fix the manner of "appointing election officers." The constitution now provides for their election by the people. The proposed amendment would confer upon the legislature the authority to require that they be "appointed." Suppose the legislature would require that they be appointed by the Republican state committee or by a commission headed by Sam Salter.

The people of Philadelphia can easily elect Clarence Gihbony to the office of district attorney if they only indicate an inclination to favor the same sort of men for other offices. It is as important that honest men be in the offices of auditor general and state treasurer as that the district attorney of Philadelphia be honest. This is a time for honest men to pull together for honesty in all branches of the public service.

Speaker Cannon represents his party, and if he is lax in morals it is because his party prefers people of that sort. No stream is purer than its fountain or more impure. Cannon is foul-mouthed, but he is the ideal of his party, and there is no reason why he should change his methods of life or forms of expression.

The settlement of the Pressed Steel Car strike didn't last even until the election. The tariff-pampered hogs who control that enterprise couldn't be fair to labor even for political purposes.

MOST INQUITOUS PLAN TO USURP POWER

Dangerous "Joker" in One of Proposed Constitutional Amendments.

SNAKETHAT OUGHT TO BE KILLED

Proposed Amendment Number Seven Would Deprive the People of the Right to Vote For Election Officers and Give the Legislature Opportunity to Debauch Elections and Manipulate Returns at Will.

Citizens who favor honest politics and just government have grave reasons to be alarmed on account of the provisions of one of the proposed amendments to the constitution. It is a palpable attempt upon the part of the machine legislature to deprive them of one of their most important political rights. If adopted the people of the cities will no longer enjoy the privilege of selecting their own election officers by ballot. They will be appointed by the machine "in such manner" as the machine legislature "may by law provide."

Section 14, article 8, of the constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows:

Section 14. District election boards shall consist of a judge and two inspectors, who shall be chosen annually by the citizens. Each elector shall have the right to vote for one judge and one inspector, and each inspector shall appoint one clerk. The first election board for any new district shall be selected, and vacancies in election boards filled, as shall be provided by law. Election officers shall be privileged from arrest upon days of election, and while engaged in making up and transmitting returns, except upon warrant of a court of record or a judge thereof, for an election fraud, for felony, or for wanton breach of the peace. In cities they may claim exemption from jury duty during their terms of service.

The proposed amendment reads as follows:

Section 14. District election boards shall consist of a judge and two inspectors, who shall be chosen biennially by the citizens, at the municipal elections; but the general assembly may require said boards to be appointed in such manner as it may by law provide. Laws regulating the appointment of said boards may be enacted to apply to cities only. Provided, That such laws be uniform for cities of the same class. Each elector shall have the right to vote for the judge and one inspector, and each inspector shall appoint one clerk. The first election board for any new district shall be selected, and vacancies in election boards filled as shall be provided by law. Election officers shall be privileged from arrest upon days of election, and while engaged in making up and transmitting returns, except upon warrant of a court of record or judge thereof, for an election fraud, for felony, or for wanton breach of the peace. In cities they may claim exemption from jury duty during their terms of service.

It will be noticed that the only difference between the sections as presently worded and that which it is proposed to substitute is the language emphasized in the above quotation. Obviously the intent of the legislators who conceived and proposed this amendment hoped to deceive the people by the similarity of expression into an indifference on the subject. The original provision and the proposed amendment begin and end alike, but they are vastly different. The amendment applies only to cities, it is true, but it applies to all cities and will give the machine legislature absolute control over so large a proportion of the total vote that it would be utterly impossible to counteract the fraud which might easily be projected and perpetrated.

It is hardly necessary to speak of the manner of appointing election boards in the cities which the machine legislature would adopt in the event that this power was conferred upon it by an amendment of the constitution. The legislators of 1893 or 1895 would in all probability, have appointed a commission consisting of Jim McNickel, Dev. Lane and Sam Salter, of Philadelphia, and men of the same type for the cities of the state to appoint the election boards. Or, they might authorize the Republican state committee to appoint them for cities. There is absolutely no provision for the electors of the parties to elect their own representatives in the election boards. This is insinuated in the following:

The Williamsport Sun, in discussing this question says:

It is doubtful whether in the history of Pennsylvania as bold an attempt to usurp the people's right and delegate the same to a political party was ever made as is now being attempted by a machine Republican legislature. In one of the proposed amendments to the constitution to be voted upon at the November election. Fortunately the attempt has been unmasked in time to frustrate its fruition. The amendment in question is that pertaining to the election of district election boards, intending to make the same appointive instead of elective, thus compelling the people to surrender the most important political right they possess, and to part with a safeguard which really lies at the very source of liberty. As it appears upon the ballot to be voted in November the amendment is number seven.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS.

ARENDSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 27.—The painters and frescoers have tastefully finished their work in the Reformed church in this place. It has also been lighted with electric lights and the ladies of the congregation are putting down new carpet.

Hon. Jas. J. Cole reports frost at his place at the head of the Narrows last Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. J. Bucher have just returned from a six weeks western trip where they were visiting relatives. He reports a good wheat, rye and oats crop generally, and a good corn crop in Illinois and Iowa and a fair half crop in the other states they passed through they returned via Niagara Falls. We also have a report from another party that passed through Ohio and Indiana that the corn crop was good also in these two states. Mr. Bucher also saw one of those large western thresh machines in operation on one of Geo. F. Minter farms where they thresh 1500 bushels of wheat in a day.

Mrs. Frank Culp and grand daughter Edna spent several days at the Hanover Fair. Mr. Frank R. Culp spent a day at Littlestown recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Eph. Sheely are visitors at the home of their son Dr. Curtis Sheely in Harrisburg.

Mr. A. R. Golden of Avalon, Pa. is a visitor at the home of Geo. G. Plank his father-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Danner Adams of Dubuque, Iowa spent a day here last week among old acquaintances. He left here forty years ago and was only here once since, twenty years ago. He is engaged in the R. R. Business.

Mrs. Matilda Myers of Bolling Springs is a visitor at Joseph E. Wiermans in this town.

Miss Helen A. Knouss has gone to Youngstown, Ohio where she has a number of relatives.

Lee Minter, wife and little daughter of Jersey city were recent visitors among relatives here.

Mrs. David Nary is visiting her son Ruben and daughter Mary in Phila.

Norris L. Minter left last Wednesday for Uniontown where his wife and their two children have been visiting her parents and other relatives during the last two weeks.

Thomas J. Kohl has returned from Hagerstown where he had been employed.

Raymond F. Cole has gone to Baker, N. Y., to be engaged in the apple packing business and will reside with his uncle, Charles Kuhn.

The farmers are cutting corn, but do not find it very heavy work. The grub worms having ruined the most of it and the drought damaged it also.

Misses Josephine and Myrtle Kimple of Gettysburg, are visiting relatives in the Valley and also at Wood Lawn.

John Hall, Jr., and wife, of Gettysburg, attended the sale of his father, John Hall, Sr., in the valley on the 18th of September.

HARVEST HOME SERVICE.

BARLOW, Sept. 27.—At Mountjoy Lutheran church yesterday morning a large congregation assembled for the Harvest Home Service. The pastor Rev. P. T. E. Stocksleger preached the sermon. There was a handsome display of fruits and vegetables contributed by the members of the church. The collection was presented to the pastor by Jacob F. Waybright, a member.

Mrs. Joseph Mills is slowly improving.

Mrs. A. T. Luckenbaugh, of Cumberland township showed your correspondent the other day a squash in the form of two perfectly formed grown together.

Joseph Mills, of this place, lost a horse last week, death being caused by inflammation of the bladder.

Recent visitors to the battlefield of Gettysburg on Saturday last were Mr. and Mrs. Toll. Hilderbrich. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Essie and daughter, Estella, of Taneytown, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew H. Walker, of near Harney, Md. After spending a most delightful day viewing the field the party from Taneytown went to visit at the home of Millard Patterson, of Middle creek, Pa.

Mrs. P. T. E. Stocksleger was a delegate from Mountjoy to the Arundelville Sunday School Convention and on Sunday morning last she made her report. It was all very good and everyone who was fortunate in hearing it greatly enjoyed the treat. S.

Seventeen Million Breakfasts

Shot from Guns

Last month, Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice were served for seventeen million meals.

Did you ever know foods to come so quickly into such popular favor?

Yet there are many still who don't use them—many who have never tried them. They simply don't know what they miss.

One taste of these crisp, gigantic grains makes one a convert forever. They are irresistible foods.

Think of whole wheat or rice kernels puffed to eight times natural size—made four times as porous as bread.

Think of crisp, brown, nut-like grains which are ready to melt in the mouth.

Think of cereals with the starch granules so broken that the digestive juices act instantly. The most wholesome, most enticing cereal foods in existence.

Don't you want to know, and to let your folks know, the goodness of these new foods?

Puffed Wheat—10c

Puffed Rice—15c

These are the foods invented by Prof. Anderson, and this is his curious process:

The whole wheat or rice kernels are put into sealed guns. Then the guns are revolved for sixty minutes in a heat of 550 degrees.

That fierce heat turns the moisture in the grain to steam, and the pressure becomes tremendous.

Then the guns are unsealed, and the steam explodes. Instantly every starch granule is blasted into a myriad particles.

The kernels of grain are expanded eight times. Yet the coats are unbroken, the shapes are unaltered. We have simply the magnified grain.

One package will tell you why people delight in them. Order it now.

The Correct Style of this Wooltex Coat will last through two seasons' service.

Roll this coat into a ball, shake it out and you will find it none the worse for its hard usage.

It is carefully modeled into shape, by hand. In no other way can such "soft tailoring" be attained.

The material is carefully chosen, of pure wool, cut with the warp to prevent any possibility of sagging.

"Nothing's too good for Wooltex"

The style in Wooltex garments is lasting style.

It is due to the use of the best materials which will not lose their look of quality, and to the painstaking hand-tailoring which will keep its shape through continuous wear during two seasons.
